

FINAL EXAMINATION
JUNE 2023
BIT (NEPAL FRANCHISE)

Course : DS3005
(Public Speaking)

Time : 8:00 am – 11:00 am
Duration : 3 hours

Lecturer : Mr. Abdul Hafez Zahruddin

Date : 25 September 2023

Instructions:

1. Answer ALL questions in the Answer Booklet.
2. Write your answers for Section A in the OMR form.
3. This examination paper is confidential. The questions must be answered individually.
4. Students are NOT PERMITTED to discuss or consult with other students or individuals.

SECTION	MARKS ALLOCATION
SECTION A (MCQ questions)	40 marks.
SECTION B (Structured Questions)	30 marks.
SECTION C (Essay)	30 marks
TOTAL	100 marks

This question paper consists of 11 pages (excluding front cover).

DO NOT OPEN THIS BOOKLET UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO

SECTION A: MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS (40 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer all the questions by choosing the correct answer. Note your answers in the OMR form.

1. James conducted a demographic analysis a week before his speech on the benefits of open distance learning. Which of the following is the least important information gathered during his audience demographic analysis?
 - A. Favorite color of the audience
 - B. Education level of the audience
 - C. Age distribution of the audience
 - D. Gender distribution of the audience

2. Amir included some statistical figures in his speech entitled ""The Advantages of Embracing Online Banking for a More Convenient and Secure Financial Future"".

What is the main benefit of including statistics in a speech?

- A. To provide quotes by authorities.
- B. To make the speech more entertaining.
- C. To provide description and numerical evidence.
- D. To enhance emotional appeal and engagement

3. "The group I will be speaking to comprises of predominantly middle-aged (35-55) males, ranging from high school to college education, middle-income earners, and a mix of farmers, agricultural students, and eco-conscious consumers. The content of my speech should address practicality and environmental benefits."

The statement above is from Vasanthi before she conducts a speech on how to start permaculture farming. This statement is called _____.

- A. a specific purpose
 - B. a general purpose
 - C. an audience analysis
 - D. an audience hypothesis
4. Which of the following would make a good thesis statement for an informative speech?
 - A. We love spending time travelling around Europe.
 - B. The Piatypus: Will they survive the harsh impacts of global warming?
 - C. The presence of pets in a child's life offers numerous developmental benefits.
 - D. Analysing the economic implications of globalization on developing countries.

5. Which of the following are effective forms of supporting materials for a speech about childhood obesity?
- i. Expert testimony about families affected by obesity.
 - ii. List of specific practical tips from doctors to prevent obesity.
 - iii. Random claims from teenagers about suitable diet for children.
 - iv. Statistical data on the prevalence of childhood obesity and related health issues.
- A. i, ii and iii
B. i, ii and iv
C. ii, iii and iv
D. All of the above
6. The main purpose of an informative speech is to _____.
- A. clear up disputed issues
B. share knowledge and ideas
C. provide solutions to real problems
D. exhort audiences to pursue an ethical lifestyle
7. Malika plans to give a speech about the interesting lifecycle of a star. She will be talking about main stages of a star's life which are the Formation stage, Red Giant stage, Supernova stage and Black Hole stage.
- The organisation of the main ideas would mostly be _____.
- A. sequential
B. hierarchical
C. chronological
D. cause and effect
8. Which of the following speech topics is most likely to evoke gender bias?
- A. Traditional Roles of Men and Women in Society
B. The Artistic Journey of Renaissance Songwriters
C. Exploring Permaculture and Sustainable Farming Solutions
D. The Cultural Heritage of Indigenous Peoples of Southeast Asia
9. Identify the speech topic that may not be ethical.
- A. Effective Strategies for Long Term Investment
B. The Benefits of Recycling in a Suburban Community
C. The Art of Persuasion: Techniques for Manipulating Others
D. Unethical Business Practices: Case Studies of Fraudulent Companies

10. The idea that one's own ethnic or cultural group is superior to all others is known as _____. Both speakers and listeners should refrain from using it during speeches
- A. Plagiarism
 - B. Egocentrism
 - C. Ethnocentrism
 - D. Authoritarianism
11. Geraldine wishes to present a highly controversial point in her speech. The audience may reject it. As a speaker, it would be effective for her to use _____ as supporting materials.
- A. hypothetical examples
 - B. expert, prestige, and lay testimony
 - C. facts, statistics, and expert testimony
 - D. opinions, inferences, and adjudications
12. Which of the situations below involves comprehensive listening?
- A. Engaging in a conversation with a close friend who is going through a tough time, providing emotional support and empathy.
 - B. Listening to a podcast episode on a complex concept of computer science and taking notes to understand the key facts and details.
 - C. Attending a live music concert and enjoying the performance without paying much attention to the lyrics or musical intricacies.
 - D. Participating in a brainstorming session where everyone shares their opinions, but you only focus on expressing your viewpoint.
13. While having their lunch at the cafeteria, Jason confided to Rani about his struggles and emotional challenges. Jason expressed his feelings of anxiety, and uncertainty about the future. As Rani listened, she tried to understand him and refrained from judging Jason's feelings. What type of listening was practiced by Rani in this situation?
- A. Active listening
 - B. Empathic listening
 - C. Appreciative listening
 - D. Collaborative listening
14. Audience analysis is important for a speaker as it assists in _____.
- A. developing advanced rhetorical questions
 - B. identifying potential sources for further research
 - C. crafting compelling visual aids for the presentation
 - D. adapting the message to the audience's needs, attitudes, and values.

15. Which of the following elements are typically found in the conclusion of a speech?

- i. Call to action.
- ii. Summary of main points.
- iii. Introduction of new ideas.
- iv. Restate the thesis or main idea.

- A. i, ii and iii
- B. i, ii and iv
- C. ii, iii and iv
- D. All of the above

16. "Each listener filters messages through his or her knowledge, experience, goals, values, and attitudes, which have an impact on how well they understand information. As a result, a message's meaning will never be exactly the same for both speaker and listener."

The phenomenon in the statement above is related to _____.

- A. ethnocentrism
- B. emotional crisis
- C. frame of reference
- D. psychological negotiation

17. Which of the following is not a persuasive speech goal?

- A. An activist urging the audience to support gender equality in workplace.
- B. An conservationist asking for audience commitment to ban deforestation.
- C. A philanthropist encouraging the audience to donate resources to a local food bank.
- D. A lecturer giving a talk about the concept of artificial intelligence and machine learning.

18. Which of the following speakers have effectively combined audience analysis with ethics?

- A. Marianne tells the audience that their opinions are wrong because she finds out that her audience strongly disagrees with her.
- B. Nancy decides to include basic information in her speech, because she discovers the audience has little understanding about her topic.
- C. Nick finds that the audience strongly disagrees with him on his topic, so he creates a story to make it appear that they all are on the same side.
- D. In his health talk Lester decides to include only about the benefits of collagen and avoids addressing the danger of overdosing, as he wants the audience to buy the supplement.

19. Which of the followings are related with situational analysis in public speaking?

- i. Physical setting
- ii. The size of the audience
- iii. Disposition towards topic
- iv. Disposition towards speaker

- A. i, ii and iii
- B. i, iii and iv
- C. ii, iii and iv
- D. All of the above

20. Taylor began the introduction of his speech by saying:

Think about your loved ones and closest friends. Would you want them to become victims of online scams?

What type of attention getter did Taylor use?

- A. Anecdotes
- B. Expert testimony
- C. Rhetorical question
- D. Shocking statement

21. All of the following are instances of an informative speech. Which of the following is NOT an example of an informative speech?

- A. A banker talking about current trends in online banking and scam alerts.
- B. A club president urging members to join a campaign on fighting animal cruelty.
- C. A lecturer explaining the applications of quantum mechanics in modern technology.
- D. An expert explains the history, impact, and future possibilities of artificial intelligence.

22. The following outline structure reflects which basic design strategy?

BODY

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| Main Idea 1: | ChatGPT can assist in language-related tasks. |
| Main Idea 2: | ChatGPT is an efficient information retrieval tool. |
| Main Idea 3: | ChatGPT can generate creative solutions to various problems. |

- A. Topical
- B. Sequential
- C. Categorical
- D. Problem-solution

33. Which objective of a good speech introduction is fulfilled by the following statement?

"Today I will explore the three important forms of intellectual property protection— Firstly, copyrights, next trademarks, and finally patents."

- A. Preview the body.
- B. Relate to the audience.
- C. Establish the speaker's goodwill.
- D. State the importance of the topic.

34. Which of the following is the correct sequence of steps in the Monroe Motivated Sequence, a persuasive speech organizational pattern?

- A. Need, Attention, Satisfaction, Visualization, Action
- B. Attention, Need, Visualization, Satisfaction, Action
- C. Attention, Need, Satisfaction, Visualization, Action
- D. Attention, Need, Visualization, Action, Satisfaction

35. Logos is one of the components in methods of persuasion. What is the function of Ethos in persuasive speech?

- A. Credibility
- B. Aesthetic content
- C. Logical explanation
- D. Appealing to emotion

36. Which of the statements below are related to Ethos in methods of persuasion?

- i. Establishing credibility.
- ii. Getting your audience to trust you.
- iii. Arguing based on reasons and facts.
- iv. Getting your audience to think logically.

- A. i and ii
- B. ii and iii
- C. iii and iv
- D. All of the above

33. Which objective of a good speech introduction is fulfilled by the following statement?

"Today I will explore the three important forms of intellectual property protection— Firstly, copyrights, next trademarks, and finally patents."

- A. Preview the body.
- B. Relate to the audience.
- C. Establish the speaker's goodwill.
- D. State the importance of the topic.

34. Which of the following is the correct sequence of steps in the Monroe Motivated Sequence, a persuasive speech organizational pattern?

- A. Need, Attention, Satisfaction, Visualization, Action
- B. Attention, Need, Visualization, Satisfaction, Action
- C. Attention, Need, Satisfaction, Visualization, Action
- D. Attention, Need, Visualization, Action, Satisfaction

35. Logos is one of the components in methods of persuasion. What is the function of Ethos in persuasive speech?

- A. Credibility
- B. Aesthetic content
- C. Logical explanation
- D. Appealing to emotion

36. Which of the statements below are related to Ethos in methods of persuasion?

- i. Establishing credibility.
- ii. Getting your audience to trust you.
- iii. Arguing based on reasons and facts.
- iv. Getting your audience to think logically.

- A. i and ii
- B. ii and iii
- C. iii and iv
- D. All of the above

37. Consider the following reasoning:

- Premise 1: All cats are mammals.
Premise 2: My pet Tabby is a cat.
Conclusion: Therefore, Tabby is a mammal.

Based on the above statement, which type of reasoning is being demonstrated?

- A. Deductive reasoning
- B. Inductive reasoning
- C. Allegorical reasoning
- D. Analogical reasoning

38. What kind of reasoning is used in the following statement?

Because the crime-reduction policy I proposed has worked successfully in New York, Houston, and New Orleans, we can be confident that it will work here as well.

- A. Colloquial reasoning
- B. Analogical reasoning
- C. Reasoning from principle
- D. Reasoning from generalization

39. Which of the examples below represents an ad hominem fallacy?

- A. I don't think we should consider Marissa's suggestion for the agriculture development project because she dresses provocatively.
- B. The study concludes that climate change is real, but the researcher is known to support liberal causes, so we can't trust the findings.
- C. Farid claims that we should reduce military spending, but he is not an expert in the national military defence. So, I doubt his words on this matter.
- D. The CEO proposed a new strategy for cost-cutting, but everyone knows he had a failed business venture in the past, so we should ignore his ideas.

40. What error in reasoning is exemplified in the following statement?

I usually drink coffee the night before a competition, but I ran out of coffee the night before the competition. That's why I didn't win any medal.

- A. False cause
- B. Slippery slope
- C. Invalid analogy
- D. Appeal to tradition

SECTION B: STRUCTURED QUESTIONS (30 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer ALL questions in this section. Write your answer in the Answer Booklet.

1. An attention getter or "hook" is a strategy which is usually used in the beginning of a speech.
 - a. Briefly explain the functions of an attention getter or "hook" in public speaking. (4 MARKS)
 - b. You are to give a speech entitled "Healthy Habits for Busy Lives: Finding Time for Wellness". Suggest TWO (2) attention getters which are relevant to the topic. Explain briefly about the attention getters and why you choose them. (6 MARKS)
2. Many good speakers have utilized visual aids in their speech as they are necessary in public speaking. These visual aids give a positive impact in our speech.
 - a. Provide THREE (3) kinds of visual aids. Give an example of a situation for each of the visual aids stated. (6 MARKS)
 - b. Describe TWO (2) advantages of using visual aids when you give a speech. (4 MARKS)
3. Ethos, Logos, and Pathos, the pillars of persuasive communication, serve as crucial tools for speakers to create compelling arguments that resonate with listeners.
 - a. Define the concepts of Ethos, Logos, and Pathos in the context of persuasive speech. (3 MARKS)
 - b. Explain how Ethos, Logos, and Pathos can be used in a persuasive speech entitled "Creating a Safe Neighborhood: Fighting Crimes as a Community". (7 MARKS)