

UNIVERSITY COURSES
MATA PELAJARAN UMUM
FRANCHISE PROGRAMME (NEPAL)

FINAL EXAMINATION
OCTOBER 2019

Course : MPU3233 Public Speaking

Lecturer: Ms. R. Subashini

Time: 8.00 – 11.00am
(3 hours)

Date: 17 December, 2019

Instruction: Write ALL answers in the Answer Booklet provided.

SECTION	MARKS
A	30
B	20
C	50
Total	100

This exam paper consists of 7 printed pages.
(excluding front cover)

DO NOT OPEN THIS BOOKLET UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.

SECTION A:

(30 MARKS)

Part I: Indicate whether the following statements are True (T) or False (F). Write your answers in the Answer Booklet.

1. Your listeners will lose interest if your presentation is too basic or too sophisticated.
2. Organizing ideas for presentation in a speech is an important aspect of critical thinking.
3. Ethnocentrism means showing respect for the cultures of the people speakers address.
4. It is ethical to cut and paste sections of the page into your speech without citing your source.
5. Active listening means focusing on the speaker's appearance and delivery rather than on her or his message.
6. Reviewing mentally what a speaker has said is a good way to avoid becoming distracted in a speech.
7. One of the advantages of the extemporaneous method of delivery is that it requires you to know the content of your speech well.
8. Taking a moment to look at your audience and smiling before you begin to speak can help you establish rapport with them.
9. "To inform my audience about ways to prepare for an examination" is an example of an effective specific purpose statement for a speech.
10. The following is an example of a well-worded central idea for a speech: "Humans are enslaved by technology and it has major advantages as well."
11. Being audience-centered means a speaker must only say what the audience wants to hear in order to get a favorable response from the audience.
12. Testimonial is the least effective type of supporting material because it is easy to manipulate or distort.
13. Your most important task before conducting a research interview is to work out the questions you will ask during the interview.
14. Statistics is the most effective type of supporting material because it is difficult to manipulate or distort.
15. A number of studies have confirmed that personal appearance plays an important role in speech making.
16. The time given to each main point in the body of a speech should be exactly the same.

17. Transitions are words or a phrase that indicate when a speaker has just completed one thought and is moving on to the other.
18. In order to gain the attention of your audience, a lengthy quotation in your opening speech is required.
19. A speech conclusion that builds in power and intensity as it moves toward the closing line is known as a dissolve ending.
20. In a preparation outline, the specific purpose is usually stated before the introduction.
21. It is best to use abstract words in a speech than concrete words.
22. Since most people are nervous about public speaking, it is perfectly acceptable to finish a speech by declaring, "Am I glad that's over!"
23. When answering questions after a speech, you should try to make your answers as long as possible to use up the time allotted.
24. A model or an object can be used as a visual aid during your speech.
25. "To inform my audience how to create their own blog," is an example of a general purpose for a speech.
26. An extemporaneous speech means a speech that has been well rehearsed yet sounds spontaneous to the audience.
27. By doing a demonstration during your speech, it can reduce nervousness as it provides an outlet for extra adrenaline.
28. Handouts to the audience should usually be distributed before the speech.
29. One reason to use clear and straightforward language even when talking about complex ideas is that listeners must understand your message in the time it takes you to say it.
30. Persuasive speakers should aim to construct speeches that are both convincing and ethically sound.

SECTION B: MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS
(20 MARKS)

(20

Answer all the questions. Write your answers in the Answer Booklet.

1. A person's _____ is based on his or her own knowledge, experience, and values. This is why the meaning of a message can never be exactly the same to a listener.
 - A. personal screen
 - B. attitudinal core
 - C. frame of reference
 - D. feedback mechanism

2. What element in the speech communication process does this example display: Someone coughing in the audience or walking in late during a presentation?
 - A. Channel
 - B. Message
 - C. Feedback
 - D. Interference

3. What are the guidelines for ethical speechmaking?
 - A. Explain your motives for speaking.
 - B. Cite your sources in the introduction.
 - C. Make sure your goals are ethically sound.
 - D. All of the above

4. Global plagiarism occurs when a person _____.
 - A. bases his or her speech completely on foreign sources
 - B. fails to cite sources throughout the body of the speech
 - C. takes a speech entirely from one source and passes it off as his or her own
 - D. uses two or three sources and blends the information into a unified whole

5. As Lucy listened to her classmate's speech explaining the differences between collision insurance and comprehensive insurance, she remembered that she needed to pay her insurance bill before the end of the day. Then, rather than listening to the speaker, she started thinking about all the other things she had to do that day. The primary cause of Lucy's poor listening is _____.
 - A. not concentrating
 - B. personalizing the topic
 - C. focusing on the speaker's topic
 - D. being distracted by external interference

6. What is the first step to improving your listening skills?
- A. Take listening seriously.
 - B. Focus on the speaker's message.
 - C. Resist distractions during a speech.
 - D. Suspend judgment until the end of the speech.
7. "Now that you know about Julie's interest in photography, let's look at her other passion; snowboarding." is an example of a _____.
- A. bridge
 - B. summary
 - C. transition
 - D. conclusion
8. In her first speech, Kayla introduced her classmate Sean to the class. Each of her main points dealt with one of Sean's hobbies. Based on your textbook, Kayla's speech was arranged in _____ order.
- A. spatial
 - B. topical
 - C. personal
 - D. chronological
9. Brainstorming is especially helpful when you are having trouble _____.
- A. analyzing the audience
 - B. choosing a speech topic
 - C. phrasing the central idea
 - D. determining the specific purpose
10. As a specific purpose statement, "To inform my audience about computer technology" is too _____.
- A. broad
 - B. trivial
 - C. detailed
 - D. technical
11. The fact that audiences are egocentric means that _____.
- A. listeners believe their cultural group is superior compared to others
 - B. listeners are concerned above all with how a speech will affect them
 - C. listeners interpret the speech through the speaker's frame of reference
 - D. All of the above

12. When making up an audience analysis questionnaire, you should use _____ questions to get at the strength of a respondent's attitudes or feelings.
- A. scale
 - B. leading
 - C. open-ended
 - D. fixed-alternative
13. Virtual libraries are considered valuable for speech research because they _____.
- A. focus attention on factual material such as statistics
 - B. contain higher quality information than do regular search engines
 - C. allow a researcher to locate more sources than do regular search engines
 - D. all of the above
14. The preliminary bibliography _____.
- A. lists each source that looks as if it might be helpful in speech
 - B. is based on the speaker's personal knowledge about the topic
 - C. identifies sources that the speaker is sure will be used in the speech
 - D. should be prepared after the speaker has finished researching the speech
15. Alisha began the introduction of her speech by saying:
- Have you ever been knocked down so hard by life that you didn't feel you'd ever get back up? This has happened to me many times. The first time it happened was when I tried to ride a bicycle when I was very young. Today I want to discuss with you some basic strategies for coping with life's challenges.
- What kind of supporting material did Alisha use in her introduction?
- A. Metaphor
 - B. Brief example
 - C. Expert testimony
 - D. Hypothetical example
16. To say that the median salary of a football player is $800,000 is to say that _____.
- A. no football player makes less than $800,000
 - B. more football players earn $800,000 than any other salary
 - C. when you list all the players' salaries in order, $800,000 is the middle salary
 - D. when you average all the salaries paid to major leaguers, the result is $800,000

17. The _____ is the longest and most important part of the speech.
- A. body
 - B. blueprint
 - C. conclusion
 - D. introduction
18. Which objective of a good speech introduction is fulfilled by the following statement?
- “Today I will explore the three important forms of intellectual property protection— Firstly, copyrights, next trademarks, and finally patents.”
- A. Preview the body
 - B. Relate to the audience
 - C. Establish the speaker’s goodwill
 - D. State the importance of the topic
19. The use “uh,” “er,” “um,” and similar expressions in a public speech are referred to as _____.
- a. signposts
 - b. vocal fillers
 - c. intonations
 - d. vocalized pauses
20. It is important to note that when selecting fonts for a visual aid you should usually use _____.
- A. italicized fonts
 - B. decorative fonts
 - C. no more than two fonts
 - D. a different font for each line

SECTION C: SHORT ESSAY QUESTIONS

(50 MARKS)

Answer any FIVE (5) of the following questions. Each question carries 10 marks.

1. What is ethnocentrism? State THREE (3) ways on how a speaker can avoid ethnocentrism?
2. In our communication-oriented age, listening is more important than ever. However, sometimes we tend to give in to distractions. Explain THREE (3) ways on how to become a better listener.
3. Complete the outline for a speech on "The advantages of pursuing higher education" .
Supply the title, general purpose, specific purpose, and main points for the speech .

Title :

General Purpose :

Specific Purpose :

Central Idea :

Main Points :

4. One of the ways speakers analyse audiences is by looking at demographic traits. Explain THREE (3) demographic traits of an audience that can affect your speech.
5. The skillful use of supporting ideas makes the difference between a poor speech and a good one. Describe THREE (3) types of supporting materials that a speaker can use in his or her speech.
6. A speech can be classified informative or persuasive. In your opinion, which speech is more challenging. Explain THREE (3) reasons why it is more challenging than the other.

-THE END -