

BIT / BABHM (NEPAL FRANCHISE)

FINAL EXAMINATION
OCTOBER 2023

Course : DS3005 / MPU 3233
(Public Speaking)

Time : 9:00 am - 12:00 noon
Duration : 3 hours

Lecturer : Mr. Abdul Hafez Zahrudin

Date : 11 January 2024

Instructions:

1. Answer ALL questions in the Answer Booklet.
2. Write your answers for Section A in the OMR form.
3. This examination paper is confidential. The questions must be answered individually.
4. Students are NOT PERMITTED to discuss or consult with other students or individuals.

SECTION	MARKS ALLOCATION
SECTION A (MCQ questions)	30 marks
SECTION B (Structured Questions)	40 marks
SECTION C (Essay)	30 marks
TOTAL	100 marks

This question paper consists of 10 pages (excluding front cover).

DO NOT OPEN THIS BOOKLET UNTIL YOU ARE TO DO SO

SECTION A: MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS (30 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer all question. WRITE YOUR ANSWERS IN THE OMR FORM.

1. The main purpose of an informative speech is to _____.
 - A. share ideas and knowledge
 - B. to argue about debatable issues
 - C. provide resolutions to authentic problems
 - D. exhort audiences to pursue an ethical lifestyle

2. Which of the following would make a good thesis statement for an informative speech?
 - A. Deforestation: To cut or not to cut?
 - B. You can save your money by using three easy strategies.
 - C. Comprehensive sex education should be introduced in the education syllabus.
 - D. I strongly feel that Japan anime and manga are the major cause of violence among children.

3. Below are strategies to overcome the fear of public speaking EXCEPT:
 - A. Visualize a positive outcome.
 - B. Never make eye contact with the audience.
 - C. Rehearse your speech multiple times to build confidence.
 - D. Establish a connection with your audience to create a supportive atmosphere.

4. "I'll be talking to mostly Asian mothers who work from home and run their own businesses. These women have successfully built their businesses while taking care of their families. Most are in their 30s and 40s, juggling both home responsibilities and their own businesses. They come from different backgrounds and chose to start their own businesses to have a flexible balance between work and family."

The statement above is from Suma before she conducts a speech. This statement is called _____.

- A. a specific purpose
 - B. a general purpose
 - C. an audience analysis
 - D. an audience hypothesis

5. When an idea you wish to present is highly controversial, the audience may not accept it. As a speaker, it would be effective to use _____ to support your points in a speech.
 - A. hypothetical examples
 - B. facts, statistics, and expert testimony
 - C. expert, prestige, and recommendations
 - D. opinions, inferences, and adjudications

6. Which of the following are effective forms of supporting materials?

- I. Random claims
- II. Statistics and data
- III. List of specific examples
- IV. Testimony gathered from experts

- A. I, II and III
- B. I, III and IV
- C. II, III and IV
- D. All of the above

6. James is preparing for his speech on the fascinating architectural features of a famous structure, the Sydney Opera House in Australia. He is going to talk about its unique roof dome, the concert hall and drama theatre.

The organisation of the main ideas would mostly be _____.

- A. spatial
- B. historical
- C. sequential
- D. chronological

7. Choose the correct function of a conclusion in a speech.

- A. To attract the attention of audience.
- B. To establish the speaker's credibility.
- C. To summarize the speaker's message.
- D. To provide thesis statements and preview.

8. In his speech, Gaston laughed at an ethnic group's unique culture, calling it strange. He also remarked that his own culture is much better. This makes it hard for him to appreciate and understand different ways of life. The phenomenon in the above statement is related to _____.

- A. glossophobia
- B. ethnocentrism
- C. frame of reference
- D. attention deficit disorder

9. Which of the examples below is not of persuasive speaking goals?

- A. An activist urging the audience to check their health status as soon as possible.
- B. An environmentalist asking for audience commitment to join a beach cleaning project.
- C. A promoter from a boutique persuading the audience to buy the latest jacket collection.
- D. A lecturer teaching students the process of creating a secure password for online banking.

10. During a road trip, Sarah shared her favorite music playlist with Alex. As Alex listened, he genuinely loved the beats of the songs and enjoyed the opportunity to discover new artists without any judgment.

What type of listening was practiced by Alex in this situation?

- A. Critical listening
- B. Sympathetic listening
- C. Appreciative listening
- D. Rapport-building listening

12. Which of the following speakers have effectively combined audience analysis with Ethics?

- A. Finding the audience strongly disagrees with him on his topic, Lester creates a sad story to make it appear that they all share the same problem.
- B. Kelvin decides to tell the audience that they are wrong about their views on the topic, because he finds out that his audience strongly disagrees with his explanation.
- C. Monica notices that the audience has limited knowledge about her topic. She adjusts her approach by incorporating more basic information so that they can understand better.
- D. Marcus chooses to focus solely on the advantages of Carnitine while intentionally avoiding any discussion about the risks of taking too much because he wants to promote and sell his Carnitine supplement.

13. Rahul began the introduction of his speech by saying:

"As we stand at the crossroads of progress, can we afford to ignore the pressing need for change? Should we continue down the familiar path of complacency, or is it time to embrace the challenges that lie ahead and forge a new, innovative future?"

What type of attention getter did Rahul use?

- A. Anecdotes
- B. Expert testimony
- C. Rhetorical question
- D. Interrogative question

14. "To inform my audience about the use of nuclear fusion as a clean energy solution."

Belinda was given 6 minutes to give her speech to a group of kindergarten students. However, her specific purpose is too _____ for this group of audience.

- A. easy
- B. broad
- C. detailed
- D. technical

15. Audience analysis is important for a speaker as it assists in _____.

- I. relevant visual aid selections
- II. selecting suitable supporting material
- III. avoiding inappropriate sensitive remarks
- IV. choosing appropriate language to be used

- A. I, II and III
- B. II, III and IV
- C. I, III and IV
- D. All of the above

16. All of the following are instances of an informative speech. Which of the followings is NOT an example of an informative speech?

- A. An economist talking about current financial trends.
- B. A teacher demonstrating methods of organising your final speech.
- C. A lab assistant explaining how to use the apparatus for an experiment.
- D. A club president urging members to donate to an environmental campaign.

17. The following outline structure reflects which basic design strategy?

TOPIC: Evolution of Cloud Computing: From Concept to Global Infrastructure.

- BODY:
- I. First Stage: Exploring the beginnings of cloud computing
 - II. Second Stage: The increase of cloud services, the rise of major providers, and the adoption of Infrastructure.
 - III. Third Stage: the maturation of cloud computing, the integration of advanced technologies like artificial intelligence and edge computing.

- A. Sequential
- B. Categorical
- C. Cause - effect
- D. Problem - solution

18. Stealing ideas or language from two or three sources and passing them off as one's own in a speech is called _____.

- A. global plagiarism
- B. patchwork plagiarism
- C. admissible plagiarism
- D. incremental plagiarism

19. Which objective of a good speech introduction is fulfilled by the following statement?

"The insights I'll be presenting today come mostly from my 10-year experience in the Environmental Science program and discussions with my mother, who is an environmental scientist and a prominent researcher at EcoSolutions Innovations, a leading company in sustainable technologies."

- A. Preview the body
- B. State the importance of the topic
- C. Establish the speaker's credibility
- D. Relate to the audience experience

20. The speaker and the listener will never interpret a message in exactly the same way because each person has a unique _____ formed from their knowledge, experiences, and values.

- A. attitudinal core
- B. personal screen
- C. frame of reference
- D. feedback mechanism

21. Which organizational pattern would be most effective for arranging a speech with this central idea:

"Reducing air pollution requires both individuals and the government to work together and take steps to improve the quality of the air we breathe."

- A. Spatial order
- B. Topical order
- C. Chronological order
- D. Problem – solution order

22. If the following statement occurred in the body of a speech, it would be an example of what kind of connective?

"As I shall explain next, there are two types of online scamming: The first one is Phishing Scam, and the next one is Advanced Fee Fraud."

- A. Summary
- B. Paraphrase
- C. Internal preview
- D. Rhetorical question

23. While listening to a presentation on recycling methods, Emily reflected on her time volunteering for a local environmental organization. She concluded that the speaker was well-informed about sustainable waste management practices. Emily was _____.
- filtering the message through his frame of reference
 - sending feedback about the message to the speaker
 - missing the message due to the error of ethnocentrism
 - empowering the speaker to make a change in the world
24. Which objective of a good speech introduction is fulfilled by the following statement?
 "Today, let's explore three important aspects in gardening. First, we'll discuss the art of crossbreeding plants to create new and improved varieties. Next, we'll look at how soil testing helps us enhance plant growth. Finally, we'll talk about the importance of protecting gardening techniques with patents."
- Preview the body.
 - Relate to the audience.
 - Establish the speaker's goodwill.
 - State the importance of the topic.
25. All of the following are ways that speakers can get feedback, EXCEPT _____.
- asking colleagues for a critique of the speech
 - asking the audience to videotape the presentation
 - asking listeners to fill out evaluation forms after the speech
 - asking listeners to raise their hands whenever they spot a mistake
26. Logos is one of the components in methods of persuasion. Which one is the function of Logos in persuasive speech?
- Credibility
 - Aesthetic content
 - Logical explanation
 - Appealing to emotion
27. Which of the statements below are related to Ethos in methods of persuasion?
- Establishing credibility.
 - Getting your audience to trust you.
 - Arguing based on reasons and facts.
 - Getting your audience to think logically.
- I and II
 - II and III
 - I, III and IV
 - All of the above

28. Consider the following reasoning:

Premise 1: All cats are mammals.
Premise 2: My pet Gundu is a cat.
Conclusion: Therefore, Gundu is a mammal.

Based on the above statement, which type of reasoning is being demonstrated?

- A. Deductive reasoning
 - B. Inductive reasoning
 - C. Allegorical reasoning
 - D. Analogical reasoning
29. What kind of reasoning is used in the following statement?

"Working together in an office is similar to rowing a boat with a team. Just as each rower needs to paddle in sync and communicate effectively to reach their destination smoothly, office colleagues must collaborate and communicate to achieve common goals efficiently."

- A. Colloquial reasoning
 - B. Analogical reasoning
 - C. Reasoning from principle
 - D. Reasoning from generalization
30. What error in reasoning is exemplified in the following statement?

"We should continue the routine of assigning homework every night because that's the way it's always been done in our school since 15 years ago. It worked for generations, so it must be the best way to teach."

- A. False cause
- B. Slippery slope
- C. Invalid analogy
- D. Appeal to tradition

SECTION B: STRUCTURED QUESTIONS (40 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer all questions in this section. Write your answer in the Answer Booklet.

1. Speechmaking becomes more complex as cultural diversity increases. Part of the complexity stems from the differences in language from culture to culture. In public speaking, it is important for us to respect cultural diversity. Hence, ethnocentrism should be avoided when we speak in public.
 - a. What is ethnocentrism? Give an example of ethnocentrism. (4 marks)
 - b. Explain TWO (2) ways to avoid ethnocentrism when addressing audiences with a diverse cultural, racial or ethnic background. (6 marks)
2. Stage fright is common among speakers. Some of the greatest public speakers in history have suffered from stage fright.
 - a. What is stage fright? What is the impact of it on a speaker? (4 marks)
 - b. Discuss a moment when you experienced stage fright. In your discussion, include reasons behind your stage fright and suggest TWO (2) methods to use to help overcome speech anxiety or stage fright. (6 marks)
3. An attention getter is a strategy which is usually used in the beginning of a speech.
 - a. Briefly explain TWO (2) purposes of an attention getter in public speaking. (4 marks)
 - b. You are to give a speech about "Understanding and Combating Cyberbullying". Suggest TWO (2) different kinds of attention getters which are relevant to the topic. Explain briefly about the attention getters and what is the impact of including them in your speech. (6 marks)
4. Many good speakers have utilized visual aids in their speech as they are necessary in public speaking. These visual aids give a positive impact in our speech.
 - a. Describe TWO (2) functions or benefits of using visual aids used when you give a speech. (4 marks)
 - b. Provide THREE (3) different kinds of visual aids for a speech about "The Impact of Social Media on Teenagers". Explain how these visual aids assist in making your speech effective. (6 marks)

SECTION C: ESSAY QUESTION (30 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer the question given. Write your answer in the Answer Booklet.

1. You are given a task by your faculty to deliver an informative speech for an open day at your campus. The topic of the speech is "The Impact of Social Media on Teenagers".
2. Create an outline for your speech with numerical points. Use the outline below as your guide.

SPECIFIC PURPOSE : To _____ (1 mark)

INTRODUCTION

A. Attention getter : (explain how you use the attention getter) (3 marks)

B. Credibility : _____ (2 marks)

C. Goodwill : _____ (2 marks)

D. Thesis statement : _____ (2 marks)

E. Preview of Main Points : 1. _____ (2 marks)

2. _____ (2 marks)

3. _____ (2 marks)

BODY

Main Points (note: provide 3 main points)
and supporting details:

(1 mark for each main point)
(3 marks for each supporting detail)

(Example)

1. Main Point 1: _____

Supporting details:

a. _____

b. _____

2. Main Point 2: _____

Supporting details:

a. _____

b. _____

3. Main Point 3: _____

Supporting details:

a. _____

b. _____

(4 marks x 3 for main points and supporting details = 12 marks)*

CONCLUSION

Restatement of thesis statement: _____ (1 mark)

Advice, solution or recommendation: _____ (1 mark)

END OF PAPER