

BIT / BABHM
FINAL EXAMINATION
JUNE 2024

Course : DS3005 / MPU3233
(Public Speaking)

Time : 8 am – 11 am
Duration : 3 hours

Lecturer : Mr. Abdul Hafez Zahrudin

Date : 27 SEPTEMBER 2024

Instructions:

1. Answer ALL questions.
2. Write your answers for Section A in the OMR form.
3. Write your answers for Section B and C in the Answer Booklet.
4. This examination paper is confidential. The questions must be answered individually.
5. Students are NOT PERMITTED to discuss or consult with other students or individuals.

SECTION	MARKS ALLOCATION
SECTION A (MCQ questions)	40 marks.
SECTION B (Structured Questions)	30 marks.
SECTION C (Essay)	30 marks
TOTAL	100 marks

This question paper consists of 11 pages (excluding front cover).

DO NOT OPEN THIS BOOKLET UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO

SECTION A (30 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer all the questions by choosing the correct answer. Note your answers in the OMR form.

1. What is the primary difference between public speaking and a conversation?
 - A. Public speaking involves a smaller audience.
 - B. Public speaking is more spontaneous and casual.
 - C. Public speaking requires more formal language and structure.
 - D. Public speaking has fluid and interactive roles for the listeners.

2. Which of the following is a characteristic of positive nervousness in public speaking?
 - A. It leads to perfection in speech delivery.
 - B. It causes a speaker to avoid preparation.
 - C. It increases the likelihood of making mistakes.
 - D. It energizes the speaker and heightens awareness.

3. If you are preparing a speech and want to avoid ethnocentrism, which of the following actions should you take?
 - A. Use examples and references only from your culture.
 - B. Assume your audience shares the same cultural values as you.
 - C. Focus on your own perspective without considering audience feedback.
 - D. Adapt your message to consider the cultural backgrounds of your audience.

4. During a speech, you notice that the audience seems confused by your use of a technical term. How should you apply your understanding of the frame of reference?
 - A. Repeat the term louder for emphasis.
 - B. Provide a clear definition and relatable context for the term.
 - C. Change the speech topic entirely to avoid further confusion.
 - D. Give notes and handouts to the audience after the presentation.

5. How can critical thinking be applied to enhance the effectiveness of your public speaking?
 - A. By memorizing your speech word for word.
 - B. By concentrating information in a one-sided manner.
 - C. By rejecting audience feedback to maintain your original message.
 - D. By evaluating different perspectives and anticipating counterarguments.

6. What is the primary focus of ethics in public speaking?
- A. Addressing issues of right and wrong in human affairs.
 - B. Determining the most accurate and persuasive argument.
 - C. Balancing the length of the speech with audience's attention span.
 - D. Ensuring the use of complex concepts and theories to impress the audience.
7. Which of the following best describes 'incremental plagiarism'?
- A. Copying an entire speech from one source.
 - B. Forgetting to cite a few borrowed phrases or ideas.
 - C. Presenting your own ideas as someone else's ideas.
 - D. Taking parts of a speech from multiple sources without giving credit.
8. During a presentation, a speaker uses a derogatory term to describe a group of people. According to ethical public speaking practices, what is this an example of?
- A. Name-calling.
 - B. Ethical debate.
 - C. Effective persuasion.
 - D. Ethical communication.
9. During a company's global diversity training session, the trainer emphasizes the superiority of their own culture, often comparing it to other cultures in a way that portrays them as inferior or less advanced. What ethical issue is the trainer demonstrating in their approach?
- A. Pluralism
 - B. Chauvinism
 - C. Ethnocentrism
 - D. Cultural relativism
10. Which of the following speech topics is most likely to lead to gender bias?
- A. The Benefits of Remote Work
 - B. The Impact of Social Media on Youth
 - C. The Influence of Technology on Education
 - D. The Reasons Why Women Are Better Leaders

11. Which of the following is a technique to grab the audience's attention at the beginning of a speech?
- A. Using a startling fact or anecdote.
 - B. Starting with an extensive introduction.
 - C. Using sophisticated technical language.
 - D. Conclude the points earlier for better understanding.
12. As a teacher, Ms. Farida speaks about academic matters to many groups such as students, parents and management teams. How should she tailor her message for different audiences?
- A. By relying on visual aids only to minimise confusion.
 - B. By including extensive statistical data to strengthen her points.
 - C. By using the same script for every audience to standardise the content.
 - D. By adjusting the content and presentation style to match the audience's needs.
13. Which specific purpose statement is most appropriate for a persuasive speech about school uniforms?
- A. To brainstorm on various types of school uniforms.
 - B. To discuss ways to implement school uniforms in learning institutions.
 - C. To inform my audience about the advantages and disadvantages school uniforms.
 - D. To persuade my audience that school uniforms should be mandatory in all schools.
14. If your speech topic is "The Negative Effects of Video Game Addiction on Teenagers," what would you include in the conclusion of your speech?
- i. Provide a brief summary.
 - ii. Introduce new point on the history of video game.
 - iii. Restate the negatives effects of video game addiction.
 - iv. Suggest ways to balance video gaming and other activities.
- A. i, ii and iii
 - B. i, iii and iv
 - C. ii, iii and iv
 - D. All of the above

15. During audience analysis, which factors should be considered when preparing a speech?
- A. Time and weather conditions
 - B. The venue and logistic details
 - C. The speaker's personal preference
 - D. Age, gender, culture, and field of work
16. Analyse the following introduction and identify the most effective element for grabbing audience attention:
- "Have you ever wondered what happens when the boundaries between our real lives and the digital world start to fade away?"
- A. Personal anecdote
 - B. Rhetorical question
 - C. Startling statistical data
 - D. Vivid and imaginative language
17. Luis Rivera is a veteran police officer with over 20 years of experience in the local police department, specializing in anti-crime initiatives. He frequently gives presentations to various community groups, aiming to promote safety and awareness. When Luis Rivera presents to neighborhood watch groups, he thanks them for their service and gives pointers on spotting suspicious activities. Which audience analysis principle is he applying?
- A. Concentrating on the gender.
 - B. Using humour to create credibility.
 - C. Presenting out of context information.
 - D. Focusing on the audience's role and interests.
18. Which of the following is not relevant for a persuasive speech?
- A. To urge cities to make recycling mandatory.
 - B. To explain the history of the Roman Empire.
 - C. To persuade people to adopt a plant-based diet.
 - D. To ask schools to implement mental health programs.

19. A speaker claims that "Aromatherapy cures all stress-related illnesses," but provides no evidence or credible sources. What should the speaker do to strengthen the argument?
- A. Use personal anecdotes to support the claim
 - B. Use emotional language to persuade the audience
 - C. Repeat the claim multiple times to make it more convincing
 - D. Include statistics, research, and expert testimony to back up the claim

20. These main ideas are arranged according to which organisation?

Topic: "The Evolution of the Automobile: From Invention to Innovation"

Main Idea 1: Invention of the First Automobile (Late 1800s)

Main Idea 2: Introduction of Mass Production Techniques (Early 1900s)

Main Idea 3: Development of Modern Electric Vehicles (21st Century)

- A. Spatial
 - B. Topical
 - C. Cause-effect
 - D. Chronological
21. These main ideas are arranged according to which organisation?

Topic: "Exploring the Historic Treasures of Kathmandu Durbar Square"

Main Idea 1: The Main Entrance and Hanuman Dhoka Palace

Main Idea 2: The Taleju Temple and Kumari Ghar (Living Goddess' House)

Main Idea 3: The Kasthamandap and Nearby Shrines

- A. Spatial
 - B. Topical
 - C. Cause-effect
 - D. Chronological
22. Which of the following ideas requires statistical supporting details?
- A. The aesthetic design of vintage cars
 - B. The emotional impact of a favourite car model
 - C. The historical significance of the first automobile
 - D. The decrease in car accidents due to new technology

23. Which type of listening involves evaluating the content of the message to decide if the information is valid?
- A. Critical Listening
 - B. Empathic Listening
 - C. Appreciative Listening
 - D. Comprehensive Listening
24. Jenna feels overwhelmed by her workload and shares her feelings with Lakshmi. Lakshmi listens carefully, offers understanding, and shows support without interrupting or giving advice.
- A. Critical Listening
 - B. Empathic Listening
 - C. Appreciative Listening
 - D. Comprehensive Listening
25. Which of the following is the correct arrangement of Monroe's Motivated Sequence for a persuasive speech?
- A. Need, Attention, Satisfaction, Action, Visualization
 - B. Attention, Need, Satisfaction, Visualization, Action
 - C. Attention, Satisfaction, Visualization, Need, Action
 - D. Visualization, Need, Attention, Action, Satisfaction
26. Ali is preparing a speech to persuade his friend to donate blood. Choose the correct example of the Satisfaction stage of Monroe's Motivated Sequence.
- A. "Imagine how many lives you could save by donating blood."
 - B. "Each time you donate blood, you can help save up to three lives."
 - C. "Every day, thousands of people need blood transfusions to survive."
 - D. "Please go to the nearest blood donation centre today to make a difference."

27. Sarah wants to prepare an outline for her upcoming speech for a group of kindergarten children. The specific purpose of her speech is: "To inform my audience about nuclear technology."
Unfortunately, Sarah doesn't realise that there is a problem with the topic. Why is her topic flawed?
- A. Very broad and general
 - B. Too complex and advanced
 - C. Not suitable for an informative speech
 - D. Difficult to support with statistical data
28. Identify the speech topic that may not be ethical.
- A. Deforestation and Its Impact on Ecosystems
 - B. The Benefits of Composting in a Suburban Community
 - C. Unethical Business Practices: Case Studies of Fraudulent Companies
 - D. The Art of Persuasion: Practical Techniques for Manipulating People's Mind
29. Which of the following are effective forms of supporting materials for a speech about pollution?
- i. Random claims from social media about causes of pollutions.
 - ii. Expert testimony about economic activities affected by pollution.
 - iii. Statistical data on the prevalence of pollution in developed countries.
 - iv. List of specific strategies from environmentalist on how to curb pollution.
- A. i, ii and iii
 - B. i, ii and iv
 - C. ii, iii and iv
 - D. All of the above
30. What is the main benefit of including statistics in a speech?
- A. To provide quotes by authorities.
 - B. To make the speech more entertaining.
 - C. To provide description and numerical evidence.
 - D. To enhance emotional appeal and engagement.

31. The concept of _____ is the belief that one's own ethnic or cultural group is superior to all others. It is not appropriate for listeners or speakers to use this during speeches.
- A. Plagiarism
 - B. Egocentrism
 - C. Ethnocentrism
 - D. Authoritarianism
32. Which of the following is an example of a 'Hasty Generalization' fallacy?
- A. Dismissing an argument by attacking the speaker's character.
 - B. Believing that a new diet must be effective because it's the latest trend.
 - C. Arguing that a proposal should be accepted because it's what everyone is doing.
 - D. Assuming all politicians are corrupt because a few have been involved in scandals.
33. What does 'Pathos' refer to in methods of persuasion?
- A. The use of humour to engage the audience.
 - B. The logical appeal through facts and statistics.
 - C. The ethical appeal to the speaker's credibility.
 - D. The emotional appeal to the audience's feelings.
34. If you say, "Everyone is doing it, so it must be good," which fallacy are you committing?
- A. False Cause
 - B. Bandwagon
 - C. Red Herring
 - D. Appeal to Novelty
35. Identify the fallacy:
- "Our family has always celebrated holidays this way, so we shouldn't change."
- A. False Cause
 - B. Ad Hominem
 - C. Slippery Slope
 - D. Appeal to Tradition

36. Which of the examples below represents an ad hominem fallacy?
- A. I don't think we should consider Selma's suggestion for the agriculture development project because she is obese and clumsy.
 - B. The CEO proposed a new strategy for cost-cutting, but everyone knows he is bad with preparing budgets, so we should ignore his ideas.
 - C. Benjamin claims that we should reduce military spending, but he is not an expert in national military defense. So, I doubt his words on this matter.
 - D. The research concludes that climate change is real, but the researcher is known to support heavy industry and factory activities, so we can't trust the findings.
37. Navin includes this information in his speech about diabetes:
- "According to the National Institute of Health, regular exercise can reduce the risk of heart disease by 40%. Additionally, a study from Harvard University showed that individuals who engage in at least 30 minutes of physical activity daily have a 25% lower risk of developing Type 2 diabetes. Therefore, maintaining a regular exercise routine is crucial for long-term health."
- What is the method of persuasion used in the example provided?
- A. Ethos
 - B. Logos
 - C. Pathos
 - D. Kronos
38. What error in reasoning is exemplified in the following statement?
- "If we allow citizens to own firearms for self-defense, it will cause a society full of violence, chaos, and anarchy. Children will use guns! In the end, everybody dies!"
- A. False Cause
 - B. Slippery Slope
 - C. Appeal To Tradition
 - D. Hasty Generalization
39. What does 'Ethos' in persuasion speech focus on?
- A. The appeal to novelty or modernity
 - B. Emotional engagement of the audience
 - C. The logical consistency of the argument
 - D. The credibility and trustworthiness of the speaker

40. Major Premise: All students must submit their assignments on time.
Minor Premise: Emily is a student.
Conclusion: Therefore, Emily must submit her assignments on time.

What type of reasoning is used in the example provided?

- A. Inductive
- B. Deductive
- C. Abductive
- D. Argumentative

SECTION B: STRUCTURED QUESTIONS (30 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer ALL questions in this section. Write your answer in the Answer Booklet.

1. Many good speakers have utilized visual aids in their speech as they are necessary in public speaking. These visual aids give a positive impact in a speech.
 - a. Describe TWO (2) advantages of using visual aids when you give a speech. (4 MARKS)
 - b. You are to give a speech on " How Artificial Intelligence is Enhancing Learning".
Provide TWO (2) specific visual aids for this topic. Explain how they will help to make the audience understand your point. (6 MARKS)
2. The introduction of a speech has several important components, namely Attention Getter, Credibility and Goodwill.
 - a. Provide TWO (2) reasons for creating Credibility and Goodwill in public speaking. Briefly explain each reason. (4 MARKS)
 - b. You are to give a speech entitled "Benefits of Exercise for Your Health".

Suggest TWO (2) attention getters which are relevant to the topic. Explain how they will help to make audience understand your point. (6 MARKS)
3. Ethos, Logos, and Pathos, the pillars of persuasive communication, serve as crucial tools for speakers to create compelling arguments that resonate with listeners.
 - a. Define the concepts of Ethos, Logos, and Pathos in the context of a persuasive speech. (3 MARKS)
 - b. Explain how Ethos, Logos, and Pathos can be used in a persuasive speech entitled "We Must Ban Single-Use Plastics to Protect Our Oceans". (7 MARKS)

SECTION C: ESSAY QUESTION (30 MARKS)

Instruction: Answer the question. Write your answer in the Answer Booklet.

You are a president of a club in your university. The club is planning a campaign to encourage students' involvement in cleaning local parks and streets. You are given the task of persuading students to join this campaign.

Create a suitable campaign and write AN OUTLINE for your persuasive speech. DO NOT WRITE AN ESSAY. Use the guideline below.

		MARKS
Topic	:	(1 MARK)
Specific Purpose	:	(1 MARK)
A INTRODUCTION
Attention getter	:	(2 MARKS)
Credibility	:	(2 MARKS)
Goodwill	:	(2 MARKS)
Thesis Statement	:	(1 MARK)
B BODY
Need	:	(4 MARKS)
	i. (main idea)
	ii. (supporting details, explanation)
	iii. (specific or relatable examples)
Solution	:	(4 MARKS)
	i. (main idea)
	ii. (supporting details, explanation)
	iii. (specific or relatable examples)
Visualization	:	(4 MARKS)
	i. (main idea)
	ii. (supporting details, explanation)
	iii. (specific or relatable examples)
C CONCLUSION
Restatement of thesis statement	:	(1 MARK)
Call to action	:	(2 MARKS)
Language (grammar, vocabulary, format, coherence)		(6 MARKS)
TOTAL		(30 MARKS)

END OF QUESTION